Headline:
Turning windy with outbreaks of rain.

This Evening and Tonight:
A dry evening but becoming cold and frosty under clear intervals. Clouding over after midnight with temperatures rising and the risk of frost reducing. Outbreaks of rain then arriving from the north as it also turns breezier. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Friday:
Cloudy with periods of rain at first. Skies brightening by lunchtime, with heavy blustery showers, and some hail mixed in at times, these turning wintry over the hills later. Windy. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Sunshine and showers on Saturday, some wintry over hills, but very windy and cold. Much lighter winds on Sunday, then turning cloudier and less cold through Monday with light rain.
